

Employment Opportunity
Salvation Army New Life Church

Youth Ministry Worker

The Salvation Army New Life Church at Vancouver is looking for a Youth worker who will be responsible for Bible study, programs coordination, activities and spirituality for Youth Fellowship. Besides maintaining and operating the programs already established for the new immigrants and local born Chinese Canadian youth, a new plan in reaching out to the high school students in the community will be undertaken. The Youth Ministry Coordinator is a part-time position and may be adopted toward interim requirements.

Qualifications

- 1) Christians with some theological training.
- 2) Fluency in spoken and written English language and ability to communicate verbally in Mandarin is an asset.
- 3) Able to lead Youth devotion and deliver messages.
- 4) Good communication skills.
- 5) Willingness to learn and try new things.
- 6) Willingness to work with flexible time schedule

Prospective candidate, please send resume to: Parker Shieh, email:
parker.shieh@salvationarmy.ca.