

Hiring Youth Leader – Part Time

Richmond Peace Chinese Mennonite Church (RPCMC)

We are looking for an enthusiastic and passionate youth leader who cares deeply about leading youths into building a personal relationship with God. Duties of this position include, but not limited to, leading Sunday School and AWANA Club meetings. The ideal candidate needs to have excellent communication skills, an approachable personality and solid Biblical knowledge with an educational background in relevant theological studies.

We are a small Chinese church with fewer than 100 regular attendees. While English is the first language for many of our youths, Cantonese is also used frequently. So our ideal candidate would have a level of conversational capacity in Cantonese; but this is not a must. Our youth leader needs to be committed in drawing our youths closer to God in fun and creative ways, while fostering a strong bond within the group itself. The youth leader would be accountable to the deacon board and the lead pastor, and be responsible for providing monthly written updates on the health and status of the youth ministry.

This position will be on a one-year contract, with our strong hope that we would be able to continue renewing the contract if God provides us with the right person. Our church building has an English Service on Sundays so the youth leader has the option to join the English Service prior to leading Sunday School.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you feel like you would be a good fit to our family. We would love to hear from you! Please submit your job application to youth.hiring@rpcmc.ca.
