

We are Hiring!

Spiritual Care/Wellness Coordinator

W.I.N.G.S. (Women in Need Gaining Strength) Fellowship Ministries is looking to hire a part-time (24 hours/wk) Spiritual Care/Wellness Coordinator to provide an effective response of spiritual support for women and children who have been impacted by violence and who articulate a desire or need for such services; provide spiritual care to WINGS staff and volunteers; develop, coordinate, and implement wellness/resilience programming for clients; and be an advocate/liaison with faith agencies for clients relocating into their communities.

The successful candidate:

- She would have post-secondary education (preferably seminary) with a major focus in chaplaincy or a related field
- She would have three+ years related or relevant work experience
- She has a vibrant relationship with Christ, strong devotional life
- She has a comprehensive knowledge of Scripture and Bible study
- She has alignment with our organizational Statement of Faith
- She would have knowledge, understanding, and sensitivity of multi-faith communities and their beliefs
- She would be an insightful listener, excellent oral and written English communicator
- She would understand issues related to domestic abuse, gender equality, with the ability to research, distill and convey information in a clear manner
- She would have knowledge of wellness/resilience programming
- She would be familiar with various support services for families
- She would have strong organizational skills and multi-tasking ability, including adapting priorities as needed
- She would have proven ability to work collaboratively with groups, as well as independently as required
- She would have a Valid Class 5 BC driver's license, a current criminal record check for children and vulnerable adults, and be fully vaccinated against Covid-19
- She would be able to represent W.I.N.G.S., its philosophy, constitution and bylaws, and policies and practices during employment, and to work as an integrated member of a close knit community of staff and residents.

Please email cover letter and resume to:
wingsed@monarchplace.org

