

Worship team leader (Part Time)

Our small, alive, presence centred church that loves to worship, is seeking a part time worship team leader/servant.

If you are gifted in leading not only worship but also a team, we would love you to consider joining us. We echo Moses' cry, "Lord don't send us without your Presence, there is nothing else to distinguish us from all the peoples of the earth but your Presence." As the lead pastor of our church, I am honoured and blessed to be led in worship each week by Spirit led volunteers. They are amazing, and in truth, any one of them could fill this role but other calls on their lives prevent that at the moment. I am stunned at the authority and humility of our current team; they do not angle for position except the position of humble worship before our king. You will need to be such a person and confident enough to walk in gracious humility as the key servant leader of this team. The job description looks a bit daunting but if you are the right person, it will flow out of you so naturally we will hardly need to look at it. You will find his yoke easy, his burden light.

- Presence of God lover, confident, teachable, humble
- Can play an instrument
- Not threatened but rejoicing in sharing the weekly leadership of our worship time; you likely will lead 2 sometimes 3 times a month; on occasion 4 times. On weeks you do not lead, we hope you naturally often join in as part of the team that Sunday
- Have a heart to welcome train and release new and younger worship leaders. We have two young men right now stepping into our mix.
- Understanding and enjoying the tech/ sound side is certainly beneficial.

- Are you: kind, gentle, a warrior for joy, for the lost, for presence, for revival, for outpouring, for the kingdom of heaven expanding on God's earth until our King returns?

Please send: your resume and a letter of introduction with testimony. At some point, we would love a link to a sample of your worship leading.

If we sense a potential fit, we will send a couple of links with our volunteers leading and the full job description that shall not be daunting if it is the yoke of Christ for you. We will also ask for an interview with our pastoral team and at least one worship team member.
